

WEEK 10: Animal Oddities

■ Comma (Series), Comma Splice, Plurals

Earthworms have no teeth eyes bones or nostrils, it's a wonder they get around.

■ Using the Right Word, Quotation Marks, End Punctuation

Did you know that "wolves carry food to there young by swallowing it and bringing it up again later"

■ Using the Right Word, Hyphen (Single-Thought Adjectives), End Punctuation

Did you no that the ever changing chameleon has a tongue longer then it's body

■ Using the Right Word, Pronoun-Antecedent Agreement, Spelling, Comma (Interruptions)

Chameleons are quite versatile; they can change colar and focus its eyes independantly. Yes that means they can look in too directions at once.

■ Comma (Series), Subject-Verb Agreement, Dash

The giraffe can grow up to 18 feet tall is born with horns and do in spite of popular belief to the contrary have a voice.