

WEEK 11: Animal Trivia

■ Interjection, Colon, Hyphen (Single-Thought Adjectives), Apostrophe

Aha here's a little known fact starfish breathe through their feet.

■ Parallelism, Using the Right Word, End Punctuation

Does a cricket sing with it's wings and can here with it's legs.

■ Subject-Verb Agreement, Numbers, Spelling

Niether my inteligent brother nor his brainy friends knows that birds have 3 eyelids on each eye.

■ Apostrophe (Possessives), Parentheses, Numbers

A cats grace comes from its having 250 bones in its body twenty in its tail alone.

■ Numbers, Pronoun-Antecedent Agreement, Subject-Verb Agreement, Comma (Between Independent Clauses)

Cats may have 9 lives but it has only four rows of whiskers.